

Alvin "Big Al" Paul Louque

February 20, 1954 - February 26, 2015

Alvin Paul Louque 'Big Al' passed away on Thursday, February 26, 2015 at the age of 61. He was a native of Burnside, LA and a resident of LaPlace. Beloved husband of Diane Marie Thompkins Louque for 36 years. Father of Angelle Marie Louque LeBouef (Lance LeBouef), Alvin Paul Louque, Jr. (Gwen Shelton Louque), Andrea Ann Louque Catanese (Joey Catanese), Ambrose John Louque and Annie Mae Louque. Son of the late Annie Mae Naquin Louque and Francis Joseph Louque. Brother of Sandra Ann Louque Anslum (Bobby), Susan Mary Louque Falcon (Neil), Connie Ann Louque Abbate (Peter), Carol Rita Louque Rizzuto and Donald Francis Louque (Brenda Wrey Louque). Grandfather of Angel, Lacey, Sophie, Olivia, Caleb and Alexandra LeBouef, Scarlett Catanese, Alayia and Aubrey Louque, and baby - Alvin Louque. Grandson of the late Andrea Morvant Naquin and Nelson Earl Morvant. Son-in-law of Earline Hernandez Vizcaino Hotard and John Vizcaino, III (Sharon Monk). Also survived by many nieces and nephews. Alvin graduated from St. Charles High School and Bethel Bible College. He was employed by Industrial Maintenance as a First Class Painter and was the owner of Rainbow Vacuum Cleaners. Alvin loved people and had many friends. He was a loving man and adored his wife, Diane. Alvin was very close to his children and grandchildren. Alvin was an active member at Life House Church for over 34 years. He was an active member of Celebrate Recovery for 5 years. He had many friends, to name a few, Dr. Roderick Dewitt Aguillard, Pastor Stephen Aguillard, Danny Bailey and Terry Bjerk. He was an evangelist leader of 'Soul Patrol' with many outreaches to this community and beyond and was a leader in 'Spanish Bible Study' with Brant Durapau. He enjoyed fishing, music, camping, crawfish boils and just spending quality time with family and friends. Many were touched by Alvin's life, his legacy will go on through the hearts of many lives he has touched. We will miss him but know he is on the other side waiting for us.
