“ In the early 80's the McDonald family moved into the neighborhood across the street from us. We became friends soon thereafter. Angie and Todd were students at East St John at the time and Mr Glen their father, was a teacher and coach there. Our son Steven attended East St John also and became friends with Angie and Todd. It became a close friendship that continues today. We are deeply saddened by the passing of Angie. I will always remember her smile and her sense of humor that she had. She had a certain thing about her which could make you laugh. Carol and I would like to send our deepest sympathies to Miss Francis, Todd, Toby, Ashley, Jake, Jenna, and the extended McDonald and Roussel family. Our prayers are with you.

Todd and Miss Francis, this news was certainly shocking and sad. It took a minute for it to resonate with me who Angie was, but then I realized who it was, and truthfully, she looked like she did 40+ years ago. You guys left our small town many years ago, but y'all left a great impression. Prayers for y'all, and I am genuinely sorry for your loss.

Heidi this is Kelly Bossier Cantillo. I just buried my sister Terri Gauthé. So sorry to see this about Angie. Not sure what happened. Covid took my sister's life. 😭
