“ I remember when I brought my 64 Impala to get painted in the late 70's when you were putting your signature hand print on your paint jobs I asked you not to put that on my trunk lid and you told me it was going to cost me, by the way paint job still holding up today, Thanks for your friendship when I was with the Fire Department and Sheriff Office, you never will be forgotten, RIP "Pop" , prayers for you and your family.

“ So grateful I got a chance to know you. You gave me a opportunity when no one else wanted to. I was a young business man trying to navigate through the custom and collision industry and the knowledge you gave me is priceless. You didn't call me Rayshone you gave me your own nickname I was Junior to you. I'm forever grateful. You were a major part of Xtreme Customs & Collision. Long live Poppa Top
