“ It seemed like just last week grandma was making her famous cherry pudding. She didn't know it, but I thought all of her food was famous. When I was younger, she and Grandpa would give my a nickle if I swept off the whole carport. I couldn't wait to get there to run for the broom. Grandma had a heart of gold and I have never heard her speak ill of anyone. She was a loving person with a gentle love for all. She will be missed by many. Today was bittersweet. Losing her meant she could finally rest and be at peace with grandpa. Til we meet again, your grandchild, Michele.
