“ Our families met because of Joe and Bobbie's need for repairs on their home. My husband Ray and son Daniel made them both so happy to have their home again. They thanked them with a feast fit for a king. That day is when I met her. So welcoming, so happy with the results. I then had an opportunity to sit with her last year and visit while my husband put up a handrail on her back steps. We had the best conversation and we laughed. We had planned on an another visit but her diagnosis came the same week I was put in the hospital. She reached out to my husband to let us know and I am so sorry we never got the chance to see each other before her passing. My sincerest condolences on the loss of your wife, mother, aunt, and all the people who's life she touched.

“ Bobbie and I worked together for ten years at the American Heart Association. Our jobs intertwined and we became very close friends. She nicknamed me “Cindy Lou” and I nicknamed her “Bobbie Sue”. We always kept in touch after leaving the AHA and even visited last summer. Bobbie was always a sweet and loving friend. She loved her family fiercely. I’m praying for you my Bobbie Sue and I’ll miss you. You will always be in my heart. ❤️🙏
