“ I'm a cousin of Bonnie's & even though we haven't seen or spoken in years, I've thought of her & her sisters many times! When we were kids, we were neighbors & spent many times at each others house! She was the baby of the bunch, but she always tagged along with us & we didn't mind! I'm so sorry she passed so young & send my condolences to her family & friends! Prayers to them & for her! RIP Bonnie! ❤️❤️ Sending my love, Cuz Alice

“ I have so many memories with you. So many happy memories singing and dancing around in your living room being silly. You were always the life of the party. I'll never forget your visits to Texas when I was in high school and you showing up and making my friends laugh so hard. I loved your larger than life personality & can hear your laugh. I know you loved your boys & grand babies so much! Love & miss you give Louque a big ole hug from me! Love you! ❤️

“ From a little child I have memories of many with you. Coming down on vacations and playing at your house. You coming to Louques and is always having a blast. You would come to Texas and we would all enjoy time with you. The night you came to hear me sing and made us all laugh cutting up with the man singing Pretty Woman. Just the other night you was on the phone cutting up with me at moms. You asked me to sing you a song but I didn't feel like it 😞 I miss you so much already. Your voice acting silly with me all the time is all I hear! I love you rest on your cloud and watch over me. ❤️ You always was a wonderful mom and Aunt and we will all miss you so much!!!
