“ *Charlene and Family,
Please receive my heartfelt condolence at the news of Brent's passing into eternity with Jesus. He will surely be missed. His smile and genuine caring for people is a sweet memory for me. We met on his daily walks a few years ago while I worked in my yard. Always a "Hello" and often a visit over my chain-link fence. More recently when I walked my dogs past your home and you and Charlene sat on your patio. Thank you, Brent, for your kindness during my husband's illness. You will always be remembered as a kind friend.

“ Brent and my Dad were friends for years, and my mom still has fond memories that my dad had shared with her, as well as, memories in more recent years. They just don't make them like your dad anymore. Prayers for your family, and may God's eternal peace be with Brent.

*Charlene and the family,
My deepest sympathy to you all. I always think of you and Brent every time I pass the old house in Garyville and I think about the meals and good times we shared there. Our Bayou Steel days are embedded in my memory. May God continue to give you strength and know that Brent is smiling down on you.*

“ *Brent was a great friend, co/worker of mine @ Latter & Blum.
I remember a time when he had to help a fellow agent here in our office choking on something, well, get back Brent was at the rescue performing the heimlich on her. It was done to perfection!!! When he was done, we were in tears of happiness.
Also, I think we all know this, Mr. Brent was 1 of the best cooks around. After he left Latter & Blum, he would deliver to my home, his homemade goodies at Christmas time.
A genuine, down to earth, really nice guy!! Will be truly missed!!
Love you, Brent!
LION UP!!!!*
