

Carl Joseph Vicknair Sr.

January 5, 1949 - June 2, 2024

Today we celebrate the life of Carl Joseph Vicknair, Sr. a husband, father, brother, grandfather, great grandfather, friend, dedicated Vietnam War veteran, carpenter, role model and a man of faith. Carl Joseph Vicknair, Sr. passed away on Sunday, June 2, 2024 at the age of 75. He was born in Reserve, LA and a resident of St. Amant, LA. Carl was an avid hunter, fisher, woodworker, gardener and cook.

He is survived by his beloved wife of fifty-four years, Merry Gay Michel Vicknair of Garyville. Loving father of Holly Vicknair LeBouef (Stephen) and Carl Joseph Vicknair, Jr. (Allison). Grandfather of Austin LeBouef (Brooke), Haley LeBouef, Blake LeBouef, Max Vicknair, and Maggie Vicknair. Great grandfather of Lawson LeBouef and Luke LeBouef. Son of the late Justine Brady Vicknair and Joseph D. Vicknair. Brother of James C. Vicknair (Gerda), Anita Abreo (Johnny), Susan Kinney (Jon), Nancy Duhe (Chester) and the late Joseph Denis Vicknair (the late Zelma), Norman Vicknair, Joseph Melvin Vicknair (the late Nancy), Peggy Teen (the late Micky), Kitty Ducote (the late Ray), Love Joy Catoir (the late Gerald) and John Drew Vicknair (Brenda). Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

The youngest of 12 children, Carl was born to Joseph and Justine Vicknair in Reserve, LA on January 5, 1949. He grew up in Reserve, LA and was a graduate of Leon Godchaux High School, class of 1968. Carl was then drafted in 1969 into the United States Army 5th Infantry Division where he proudly served his country in the Vietnam War, receiving a Bronze Star thereafter. As a proud veteran, Carl was a member of the Gonzales Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW). Upon his return from Vietnam, Carl married Merry Gay Michel of Garyville, LA. Their love gave them two children Holly and Carl Jr., five grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. Carl enjoyed traveling around the country, being outdoors, and attending his children and grandchildren's extracurricular activities. More than anything, Carl was a proud father, grandfather and great-grandfather. There was nothing Carl loved more than to spend time with his family. Whether it was attending the University of Louisiana Lafayette sporting events or crabbing in Grand Isle, Carl loved every minute he spent with his family.

Carl was one of the nicest men you could ever meet. He will be deeply missed by his friends and family. I will miss seeing him at Holly and Stephen's home. His family was very important to him and he worked tirelessly helping them in any capacity. As neighbors and friends we often shared the good times and the tough times. Thankfully there were more good than bad. I pray that your soul finds eternal peace and happiness. Much love to Merry Gay and her entire family. Mandy LeBlanc to My dear sweet Loving Uncle Carl!

How could you leave us, I'm sure it's not easy for you either. You had so many more stories to share with us: "The Carl Vicknair Shenanigans". You had so many more sights to see, fish to catch, boat rides to take and so many more pallets to be recreated into something wonderful, and let's not forget your smile, so many many more smiles to light up our world. I ask god, How can you take my Uncle Carl? I prayed for all my family to be safe and healthy, especially my aunts and uncles who have not been well. Maybe I didn't pray hard enough, or perhaps you had too many other prayers to answer. My heart knows you must have needed Uncle Carl for something bigger in heaven than on earth. I can feel some relief for knowing that Your pain from this horrible disease is over and you're reunited with all the loved ones that you have in your lifetime: the many friends, co-workers, cousins, nieces, and nephews. Once again you are with your Brother JD, Norman, Melvin, Kitty, Peggy, Lovejoy, and John Drew. I am slightly envious that you get to be with my mom and the rest of my family, but I will wait my turn. Now, most of all you are back in the loving arms of your mother, my dear grandmother Justin. More special than that you are finally reunited with Grandpaw Denis, your father. That brings my heart some joy. You lost him at such a young age and yet, You grew up to become such a wonderful son, brother, uncle, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. What a beautiful family and life you created. I will always be so proud to have had you as my uncle. I will miss you more than words can say. I will carry your beautiful smile and memory with me forever. Rest in Peace Uncle Carl. I will miss you more than words can say
With all my love.
