“ So very sad to think of Chantel gone so soon. A young wife and mother so full of life. She should have had many more years ahead of her. We never know what tomorrow brings. Remembrance of her was her sweet smile and friendly personality from our days in church together. Always enjoyed time with Chantel. Chris, our sympathy for this untimely loss to you, your children, and all the family.

Love, Fred & Phyllis Boudreaux

“ Chris, kids, Summer, Tammy and the rest of the family, I am so sorry for your loss. Chantel was a beautiful person, inside and out. What a blessing to be a part of her life and family. Was hoping to make it today, but we are shorthanded at work. Please know you will continue in my prayers. Much love to you all! Jeanette Wellman Parsons
