“ My heartfelt condolences to Cindy and family .I had known Charlie from our Shell Oil days. We traveled a couple of times to do audits and training. He and his gang from Norco spent several days with us in Delaware City in 2001. Charlie was one of my most valuable and trusted friends. He and I shared many stories and experiences and often bounced ideas off of one another. We also shared many grandbaby stories. He will always be remembered and missed by those who worked with him.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Charles coached me at Lebro. I have great memories of him teaching me the game of football. He was a passionate man and devoted many hours to kids that were not his own. I was fortunate to go to college on a football scholarship. The time he gave to me was precious. He was a mentor to me and many others. Rickie Hodges.
