“ Mr. Charles was one of the best neighbors a person could have and that's what he was to our family for over 50 years. There were a lot of times my dad and Mr. Charles spent talking over the fence about all sorts of things. He was always super nice to us kids. He could always be counted on in times of need. Mr. Charles was always asking about how we were doing, even after us kids grew up and moved away. He was a thoughtful and generous man and will be missed.
