“ Devastated again by the shocking news! Chuck was one of the good guys that had a way with making you feel comfortable. For the family, you have my deepest regrets, may the emptiness you feel today be full of the good memories he left behind.

RIP CHUCK!

“ We have such wonderful memories of Chuck! He was just the nicest guy you would ever want to meet and we loved him very much! We will miss his great cooking on Thanksgiving and Christmas. Roland will miss his calls to check on us and I will certainly miss our joking about me and him swapping our ages! I will miss that text on his birthday telling me how old I made that day! R.I.P. Chuck! We love you and we will miss you so much!

“ This saddens my husband and I and was a shock..He was one of our best friends when we lived in Louisiana. We have alot of great memories but our favorite was spending Mardi Grais at his house and enjoying his amazing cooking .and his homemade egnog and drink specials he made us ...We also spent a couple Thanksgivings with him and Robyn and we will never forget those fun times ..Rest in peace Chuckie and we will never forget ya ! Hugs to Robyn and Chase and the family, you are all in our prayers

“ We were saddened to hear the news Sunday afternoon of Chuck’s passing. Chuck was a very good friend and served in our wedding. We grew apart over the years, but in the last six months we reconnected by phone. I had several phone conversations with Chuck as we reminisced, talked about our families, health issues and all the good times. I will miss those phone conversations my friend, RIP till we meet again. Praying for all family members 🙏❤️

“ How can I began? We were all like brothers and sister on or very own street, that they called Evelina, but we know was bumblebee lane. How many time we ran that street, played baseball, rode horses and walked from light to light BC the street light started going out from Ames. We all grew up and went our own ways but are still in each other’s heart. RIP, until we meet again. Love Patti

“ I have so many awesome memories of Chuck, and with Chuck...but my most favorite is the day we all rode in the parade. We had such an awesome time on that float drinking and cutting up and of course we were all drunk....we got home (After chuck banged us around in back of a uhaul) we all go into the house and after about 10 minutes we all like where's Chuck we all look around and find him passed out in the grass...we laughed so much at him and with him. I'm going to miss you sooo much Chuck! Love you always Cindy aka Anna Nicole! R.I.P. Chuckster Fly High ❤️
