“ I have tried to write this tribute several times and nothing I type can adequately express what an amazing man and father you truly were. You changed my life when you decided to step-in and raise me. I know being a single dad to three kids couldn't have been easy but you did it. I hope I continue making you proud as you watch over me in heaven. Love Always & forever your daughter ~Karen

“ Will always remember the garage door at Miss Gloria and Mr Richard's house that Cash painted. Cash was a fine artist but even a finer person and friend. What's not to love! Our world has lost a really good man! Rest In Peace, Cash ... until we all meet up again! Peace, buddy!

“ Not a second has passed that i have not missed you ,since you have been gone. I will take the valuable lessons you taught me to spread love and make you proud. Thank you for being a great role model and the best father a son could hope for. I remember we were so happy praising God together when we played in the praise and worship group at church. Watch over me from heaven and i know in my heart we will be together again one day.

Love,
Your Son
