“ Mr. Dean was such a joy to talk to. He had such a generous and giving soul. I loved when he would share what the other teams’ coaches and the umpires would say when he volunteered for the ESJ chain gang. I miss those Friday nights! RIP, Mr. Dean. Sincerest condolences to Ms. Patsy and the whole family. My prayers are with you.

“ Rest in peace dear cousin. Our childhood was simple, carefree, and filled with imagination. We cousins played cowboys and Indians many a day and much more. Of course, you Dean, were always the star cowboy dressed in your cowboy hat , shiny belt and guns. You led the gang of cousins in many an adventure. May you lead the way into heaven now and keep a light on for us all to follow. God bless you , Dean. Peace and Love to you and all of your beloved family left behind. So sorry for your loss. Dean is probably in heaven telling old hunting stories with all the hunting buddies at Tattoon's Camp, especially Poncho. May he rest in peace.
