“ It touched my heart to read the beautiful posts about Diane that so wonderfully express how much she was loved by so many. We too loved her and have groped for words to adequately express the loss we also have felt.

Our heartfelt condolences go out to Denis, Chris and John, and their families, each of whom she loved so much; and last but certainly not least, to Marlene and Joey, her Mother and her brother.

We lived on the same street as Diane and Joey, and of course Marlene and Joe, when we were kids. And in the third grade, my younger sister, (Suzie) and Diane became best friends and remained so through high school and their graduation. Then as often happens, life moved everyone in different directions.

But 15 months ago, a day or two after our 97 year old Father had died, Sue was with Mom when the doorbell rang, and when she opened the door, there stood Diane. At first, they just stared at each other and then the reaction...and the reunion began!

From that day onward, Diane just stationed herself in the center of our lives, hearts, and our family. Typically, she dropped in at least weekly and whichever one of us was there that day helping our Mother (now 96), would also get to enjoy Diane's company. She was sweet, gracious, kindhearted to the core, and filled the room with personality.

Mom at times, would call Diane to check on her when she knew she wasn't feeling well. We loved her, but we each had to tell Diane, as I'm sure so many others have... 'stop bringing food over, just come to visit, you don't need to bring food'!! Finally, she 'rather' complied, but would still bring something...smaller, but never was she completely empty handed.

We are so glad, this precious kind soul, walked back into our lives and to the door after Dad died. But...unfortunately, now, when the doorbell unexpectedly rings, it gives pause...as it slowly sinks in, that it's not going to be our dear friend...It's not Diane, not now.

But thankfully, Jesus promised a resurrection. And at that time, in the not-so-distant future, the knock on the door, may well be our precious friend...once again.

“ Diane was a kind hearted Sister and Friend. I LOVE her and will MISS her dearly. She was FAMILY! She would share with me memories of my mom. She would say Sis Teague was a classy lady and that I reminded her of my mom. Daine and I during the pandemic would spend alot of time talking on the phone and preaching teaching The Good News of God's Kingdom. Recently we had spent the day in our ministry and afterwards she treated to donuts. Then we had lunch at Guia"s home. Im looking foward to the fulfillment of John 5:28,29. Get your rest my friend. He will call and you will answer 💕💕

“ I have so many fond memories of hanging out with Diane. She used to babysit me my brother when we were younger and then as I grew up about 14 years old, I used to hang out with her and Brenda we would sit outside on beautiful days and just visit and we got along so well together then when I got married, Diane was a good organizer and cut together with some of the other friends and got me matching pods kitchen utensils, canisters, just everything for the kitchen that I needed. She was such a generous, giving person we loved her so much. We are heartbroken and sad and we will miss her 🙏💜😞

“ Even though we lived a thousand miles apart most of my life, Aunt Diane was always there for me. Especially since my mom died, she regularly checked in. We enjoyed sharing pictures and keeping up with each other. When I was little, people thought I was her daughter because we looked alike. I am sorry we didn't live closer and I hope she knew how much she was loved ❤️
