“ To the Savoies,

I remember Uncle Don as a great, fun-loving person who gave so much to so many as a teacher, coach, uncle, and human being. The world is poorer for his loss and for the loss of Aunt Shirley. They were fun, lovely, generous, and God-fearing people. Sending you condolences at the loss of your beloved papa.

“ Toni and family: I have wonderful memories of visiting your house as a kid in 3rd grade. Mr. Savoie was the principal there at LaPlace Elementary! I am sorry for your loss but celebrate his going home. God is so good. Rest in peace. Thank you for your kindness to me. “ I was so sorry to read of the passing of “Coach,” as I called him. When I was visiting yesterday at the VA, I went to his unit to bring king cake. I looked for him, but when i didn’t see him I assumed he was probably in his room. He was such a sweet soul. I loved visiting with him. His beautiful smile will always remain with me. Please accept my deepest sympathy and prayers.
Sincerely, Susan Guidry
