“ Dear Terri, Bradley, Jeremy, Mandy and family, Linda and I would like to offer our deepest sympathy for your loss. Eddie was a Brother Knight and friend. I admired his efforts to help people as well as the Christian man that he was. May God receive him into his arms and may he rest in the peace of our lord as you celebrate his life. God Bless you!

“ I have known Eddie since high school. Worked with him at Shell and would see him from time to time around town. He was a very good man, used to deliver and serve communion to my Dad while he was in the home. Always quiet and always happy. Condolences and sympathies to Terri and his family.

Sending sincere condolences to Terri and children. Worked with both Eddie and Terri and cared very much for them. God was apparently ready to call this good faithful man home.

To the Jouty Family;

Words cannot express my true feelings on Eddie's passing.

He was a harder worker, dedicated family man, and my best friend. He was the brother I never had.

RIP Eddie

Teri I am so very sorry. I remember when we had a Admin meeting you and Eddie invited me to Steamboat Bill's. He was such a nice person it was as if you already knew him. Just a great guy.

RIP
