“ *My dear sweet friend. I will miss seeing you on the street; your friendship meant so much to me. All the years that you visited at the library when I worked there, plus the times you would stop by my home and we would sit on my front porch and talk. Bobby was truly loved and his friendship enjoyed by many. The heavens will light up with his presence. My sincere condolences to Mary and all the family and friends. God Bless,

“ Rip Bobby! You will be missed and loved by many! I'll never forget seeing you riding your bike around laplace to go see anyone you could! I'll never forget seeing you at Mrs Janice's house for so many years! You were a very loving and caring person and you always knew how to brighten anyone's day! Gone but never forgotten! Prayers for everyone!
