“ Buddy's passing brings back memories of times spent working at the CCU at Shell and and seeing him at social events before and after his retirement. Always a pleasure talking to him. My condolences to all family members. Cecil Dufrene.

“ Uncle Buddy was always there for everyone. He was always telling one joke after another. MY dad ,his brother told me when Uncle Buddy was little they would sweep him off with a broom when they changed his diaper.I bet hurt, but that's some of the things they did to one another to help their mother with nine kids in the family. Uncle Buddy you will be missed by one and all. When you get to heaven tell my dad and BOB HELLO FOR ME AND I MISS THEM VERY MUCH. Love you always Helen

“ So many memories of this wonderful sweet man. So much fun over the years cheering on the Comets, Mardi Gras Parades, Gumbo when we were freezing. Man full of laughter, always smiling. Could cheer you at a drop of a hat. Paw Paw will be missed, but we all know that he is happy being back with Maw Maw. Together again, forever. Always, loved.
