

Ellene B. Womax

January 22, 1924 - June 8, 2022

Ellene B. Womax, known as “Grandmother” to many, passed away on Wednesday, June 8, 2022 at the age of 98. She was born in Grosse Tete, LA and was a resident of LaPlace, LA. Ellene worked for the St. John Library and drove their Book Mobile. She was an avid reader herself who loved a good mystery novel.

Beloved wife of the late Paul L. Womax. Loving mother of Sharon Rose (Don), Deborah Womax, Blythe Womax (Kelley) and the late Dane Womax and Pamela Womax. Daughter of the late George Booksh and Elma Granger Booksh. Sister of the late Winnie Wackwitz and Talma Gantt. Loving grandmother to Blaine DuBose (Loretta), Cody Adam (Philip), Dayne Womax (Vanessa), and David Womax (Stormy). She is also survived by her great-grandchildren, Justin DuBose, Sophia Womax, Hailey Womax, Lucy Womax, Ellie and Preston Quijano; and many nieces and nephews.

“ It's been a little over a year now since you've been gone and it seems like much more than that . You certainly live in my heart , I think of you almost daily and speak of you very often ! It's nothing like speaking with you though Grandmother , there's definitely an emptiness without you being here with us . We shared so much in what seems like so little time and oh what a great blessing you were in my life . Miss and love you so very much and I thank you for all you did for me .

“ The Womax family was very special to me when I grew up in LaPlace. Dane was like a brother to me - and all of the Womax family were wonderful people. Mrs. Womax was always a sweet lady - always caring for her family. In 1960 there were only a small number of homes in Riverlands, so all the families were close. She was a special part of that special neighborhood. My prayers and love are with the family.
