“ My Aunt Mae and my Godmother, my NanNan, I will miss her. I remember well the day she married Uncle Paul and many more memories of her. She and Uncle Paul invited me off and on in their first house they rented before they moved to the Garyville house. I took baths in a galvanized tub on the back porch. So many memories. NanNan and Aunt Joyce helped me so much as I grew up. I am so thankful for both of them. Deanna

*My sympathy to all the family. I knew Ethel from Garyville, but became friends from her years at Twin Oaks. Always in good spirt, always pretty, helped lead the Rosary. Two weeks ago she was still going strong and worried about her hair. A strong woman of faith and love of her family. She will be missed.
Love, Lynne Laiche Acosta*
