Danny lived for fun and laughter. A tenured employee of 33 years at Marathon Oil, his crazy antics were well known. His final ten years were spent at the San Francisco Plantation. He enjoyed fishing and golf, but family and friends were his biggest passion.

“ Danny was a friend and supporter of the Hubbard family. I had the chance to speak to him a few months ago and enjoyed the memories we shared. Rest in peace my friend. You will be fondly remembered. Thank you.

“ My family would like to offer our heartfelt condolences to Danny's family, he will be missed.

Danny was a very unique and positive person, he had a way of lifting every ones spirits when entering the room. He could also lower the boom on you if he felt like you were wrong, those closest to him know what I'm talking about. He would literally turn from white to red and finally purple depending on how passionate he was on the subject.

He did it because he was passionate about right and wrong in life, he cared enough about the little things that defined people, being just, fair and doing your best every day was at the core of Danny Duhe,

He always spoke very highly of his family, he talked about the pride he felt as they overcame obstacles in their respective lives. Danny told me how comfortable he was at the later point in his battle because he knew, he had no doubt that his family is strong and that he could let go knowing they will persevere. Danny did not want any one to worry or mourn him, I think that's why he tried his best to hide his pain,

Danny was a best friend and father to me, we shared some of the best and worst times together. He was able to get the best out of people he cared about. He made me a better person and I wouldn't be the man I am today if it wasn't for Danny and the few others like him. He's one of a kind and I knew come hell or high water that he was in my corner.

The Lord our father is probably laughing with Danny as I write this. I know he is in Heaven, a better place where the pain and suffering is over for him.

I know he wants his family and friends to move on and continue to make him proud, he couldn't stand the thought of hurting his loved ones.

Always leading by example, Danny, Duke, DD, T-Boy you will always be in our hearts and minds,

Thank You For A Great Time!

*With much Love,
The Baileys
Danny, Denice, Daniel, Ashley and Kayla*
