“ I became friends with Mr. Gary when filling in for pastors at his church and later becoming his neighbor in Westminster Place. He was such a booster in the services and such a friendly person to the residents here, that when he became ill and moved for medical help, he left a great void both in the church and the neighborhood.

One thing he shared with me, not knowing I was going to commend the people on their friendliness that Sunday morning, was how he'd visited several churches, looking for just the right one. How a couple of churches didn't mix and weren't friendly and in one, someone told him he'd gotten their seat!

But he kept searching and when he visited First Presbyterian Church of Ponchatoula, he was greeted so warmly and treated so kindly, he knew he had "come home".

Now, he's experiencing a similar welcome: "Welcome home. Well done, thou good and faithful servant..."

“ Gary was so faithful to come to Bible study and church. As long as he was able to get around, he was there! We loved listening to his life stories. He was so proud of his family and always talked about them. He will be missed.
