“Gina, Dina, Linda, Lawrence and family, Your mother and Mamere were such great influences on my life. I have many, many good memories of going to the house in the summertime and sitting around the kitchen table with that big fan running in the window (long, long time ago) and doing some sort of hand work with them, mostly embroidering.

I also remember holding you, Dina and Gina, both of you had your faces down under my arms, in that rocking chair in the kitchen and I would rock you two to sleep. Your mama sure must have trusted me as a young girl to hold her two little baby girls at one time. I also remembered spring cleaning days. Boy that was work. We'd get out and clean the front porch of that big house top to bottom.

I recall many times when I would joke with her about something that I thought she would be miffed about and she would giggle and just say, "I don't care Me". Loved her giggles. Just some memories that come to mind that are precious to me. Your mother will surely be missed. Prayers for the family!
