

Jacqueline "Jackey" J. Gibson Nolan

June 19, 1938 - June 30, 2019

Jacqueline "Jackey" J. Gibson Nolan, 81 years old, married to James "Jim" P. Nolan, Jr., who predeceased her, passed away peacefully on June 30, 2019, at her residence in LaPlace where she resided for the last 10 years after residing in North Port, Florida, for 4 years. Jackey was born in Rhode Island to her parents, Ella May Callaghan Gibson and George Francis Gibson. Jackey is survived by her two children: James P. Nolan III (Jay) (Pebbles) and Colleen Nolan Quinn (Terry, deceased), and 2 grandsons: Jack and Liam Quinn (Florida), and multiple cousins, friends and extended family.

Jackey attended Nursing School in Connecticut. She graduated from Nursing School, as a Registered Nurse, and married James "Jim" P. Nolan Jr. (Jim), and had her two children. Since Jim was in the Air Force, Jackey and her family moved around the country, even to Germany, before retirement of Jim's military service at Keisler Air Force Base, Mississippi. Jackey, Jim and the family moved to LaPlace during that time, then retired to North Port, Florida. Jackey held many nursing jobs around the states, including working at the Military Base, Tulane College, Capital Home Health, and Hospice.

Jackey enjoyed shopping, catching up with her friends, reading the newspaper, and spending time with her family and friends watching LSU and the Saints. She will be deeply missed.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, July 13, 2019, at St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church, 529 W. 5th St., LaPlace from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. followed by a Funeral Mass at 12:00 p.m. A private burial will be held at a later date. “ Jay, I know that this is a very difficult time for you to go through. She was always so kind to me and caring about others. I know her journey these last years have been difficult for you and her.

All I can say is that I know that it will get different. Grief has no limits or time frame. Embrace it when it comes because it will ebb and flow.

*Love you and big hugs,
Deda*
