“ To John and your children and the entire Fuselier family: Charles and I send you our love and heartfelt condolences. It was such a privilege to be your neighbor for so many years. I cherish my friendship with Jean and will remember her warm and engaging personality and devotion to her extended family and friends. I so enjoyed our informal chats on your front porch when she would stop me when I was out walking in the neighborhood.
May her memory be a blessing to all of you.

“ Mawmaw was a ray of sunshine in our lives. She never failed to make me laugh like the time she thought the bugs on the ceiling were alive or when she'd try to prove PawPaw wrong by cutting the flower stems with blunt scissors. I will never forget my precious moments with MawMaw and the wisdom she shared with me during our chats. Some people come into your life quickly and leave just as fast, just like MawMaw did for me, but she will always hold a special place in my heart and I feel so blessed to have known her at all. I love you MawMaw. Have fun playing candy crush with Jesus up there.

“ Mawmaw was the most selfless woman I ever meet. In the few weeks before her passing We were able to visit with her a lot to check on her and help her out but she always ended up taking care of us fixing us plates of snack and getting us drinks. despite the pain she was in she would always putting others before herself. We will always love you and remember you Mawmaw ❤️

Jean was my Nanan. I was baptized 4 days after I was born and she was a beautiful 12 1/2 years old girl. The church may have given her special permission. As a little girl I looked up to her as a worldly person. After all, she was a stewardess with Eastern Airlines. She'd bring me Christmas presents when she came to visit her family in Mamou. Unfortunately life took us in different directions and I never met her children or she mine. She was so kind to a young girl. My condolences to John and her children. Celebrate her life every day by sharing your memories with her grandchildren. May she Rest In Peace with our Loving Lord. 🙏❤️

Jean was my Nanan. I was baptized 4 days latter my birth and Jean was a beautiful young girl 12 1/2 years old. She may have had special permission from the church. I only knew her as a young girl when she would bring me Christmas presents when she came to visit her family in Mamou. I thought she was beautiful and worldly as she worked as a stewardess.! Unfortunately our paths would not cross again as life took us far apart. Although I've never met her children , I did know them through their maternal grandmother many years ago. My condolences to John, and their children. May she Rest In Peace with Our Lord. ❤️🙏

“ Mawmaw always told it like it was and loved to laugh. She would always defend me and Tim no matter what we did or if it was our fault. You will be missed and always loved.
