“ *Drew, I was so blessed to have you as a friend. Enjoyed so much the years at LEBRO as coaches and most of all the many found memories of hunts together. The day you died I was driving down old 51 and saw a bunch of rabbit hunters and stopped thinking one of them were you. You were a fine man and will be missed by myself and many, many others.
Your friend, David Fitzmorris*

“ I was so blessed and honored to have this man in my life. God gave me two brother-n-laws who became my brothers, Drew and Ronnie. They both gave me unconditional love and support.

Drew was the rock of the foundation. Drew, with his quiet strength and love for his extended family, stepped in to try to fill the void left by Ronnie's passing. He didn't do it for recognition or a pat on the back. It came natural for him. That's who he was.

A loving husband, father, brother, grandpa, uncle, and a loyal friend. Drew treasured each person in his life. He genuinely cared about people and it showed in his every day actions.

He was proud of his daughter, Kelly, and his son, Jaime. He was so excited the day he and Brenda became grandparents to Beaux. He was a doting Paw Paw, a loving husband.

Our lives have been enriched in knowing this truly special man. Our lives are forever changed now that he is gone. We will miss and grieve for him, but he will not be forgotten in our hearts...,our memories. RIP, Drew. We love you “ My brother and my friend. All the times we spent together rabbit hunting with the gang will never be forgotten. We grew up tough with out a father and with the love of a mother and family. I can't believe you're gone. I didn't want to see you suffering and prayed to god to protect you. You are with mom and dad, JD, Melvin, Kitty, Phillis, Todd, Norman and all others that passed before you. Rest In Peace brother I will miss you until we meet again.
