

Jonathan Paul Perret

June 10, 1993 - May 10, 2025

Jonathan Paul Perret, born on June 10 1993, in LaPlace LA was sent to peaceful, eternal rest on May 10, 2025. He was the beloved son of Gregory and Julia Perret.

To know Jonathan was to immediately fall in love with him. He was the most selfless, loving, and gentle person. His presence was that of joy and lightness, with a playful touch of sarcasm that his friends and family knew all too well. He gave all of himself to those in his life and went out of his way to comfort and care for anyone, despite his own personal health battles. His smile was warm, his laughter was infectious, and his sense of humor was sharp.

Jonathan is survived by his loving parents, Gregory and Julia, grandmother Joycelyn, his partner Jacob, brothers Matthew (Charlie) and Luke, niece Leila, his dog Cocoa Bean. Preceded in death by his grandparents Joseph and Alberta Boudoin, William "Billy" Perret.

After his graduation from Louisiana State University, Jonathan soon moved to New Orleans and began a successful career in architecture, serving the city and beyond with his God-given talents and careful, refined eye. He was a hard-working and prized member of his professional team, was passionate about his career, and gave countless hours and time of his best effort.

Outside of his professional work, Jonathan found joy in playing with his dear dog Cocoa Bean, hanging out with his friends and family, and any kind of social activity. He was a gifted cook and an even more gifted charcuterie board assembler, famous for his legendary spreads for those he loved. He was an avid reader whose book collection slowly overtook his and his partner's home, yet still kept collecting until the very end. He loved arts and crafts and making things with his hands, gifting these gorgeous pieces to his friends and family. His gift-giving abilities were rivaled by none other, always able to locate the exact thing you mentioned months ago to put under the Christmas tree. His passions and gifts were only succeeded by his desire to include others and let them know just how much he loved them.

Although Jonathan's physical presence may no longer grace our lives, his spirit lives on so strongly in every moment we share in laughter reminiscing together or when we're alone in quiet reflection. Rest now, dear Jonathan, you are finally free.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the Funeral Service. Visitation will be held on Friday, May 16, 2025 from 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm at Millet-Guidry Funeral Home, 2806 W. “ Dear Julia, Gregory, Matthew, Luke, Joycelyn and family, we offer our sincere and deepest condolences at this time. Losing a child is the most heartbreaking experience as we well know. Let Jonathan’s “happy times” embrace your thoughts and know that he is at peace without pain in his Heavenly home with our risen Savior! As y’all know, I first met Jonathan at the St. John Parish procurement department office and warehouse where he exemplified a most exhilarating and excellent manner in the work he performed. He was such a great assistant and I will never forget his commitment to excellence in his job performance.

Jonathan was also a great friend and has been in my thoughts and prayers as you are now and in the days ahead as you celebrate his life! 🙏❤️🙏

“ Jonathan, the perpetual host.

Jonathan, the charcuterie board savant.

Jonathan, the architect (of a good party).

I've been friends with Jacob for over 10 years and that's how I came to know Jonathan. Jonathan was a seamless and wonderful addition to our little family of friends. I've never been to more memorable parties than those parties planned and hosted by our very own Charcuterie King. Murder mysteries, birthday roasts, and even casual gaming nights were made special by Jonathan's touch.

Jonathan and I shared a special bond in the fact that both of us refused to get iPhones, making our friend group chat green instead of blue. We shared a love for Golden Sun, a game from 2001 that no one else seems to know about... But Jonathan knew it. Jonathan shared special interests and hobbies with everyone around him. Everyone could feel seen and appreciated when in Jonathan's company.

I don't think we'll ever understand why a burden so heavy was placed on someone so full of light. But Jonathan remained full of love and full of hope always.

He lives on in all of us, especially any time we serve delicious meats and cheeses at a well-hosted party.

We love you Jonathan!

“ I only knew Jonathan for a little over a year, however that year was a huge blessing in my life. We were on the same kickball team and he didn't hesitate to welcome me in and immediately made me feel valued and loved. The first thing I noticed was how much people loved him and how intensely he loved back. He radiated a joy that is so special. While I may not have known him long, his impact on me will last a lifetime. Sending much love to his family.

“ Jonathan was a rare type of person and truly a once in a lifetime kind of friend. He was endlessly generous, funny, compassionate, creative, and kind. Jonathan had the kind of charisma that pulled everyone into his gravity. To know him, was to love him. He collected friends everywhere he went, and made everyone feel included and welcome. He truly had an adventurous spirit and a zest for life. Whether he was trying out aesthetic charcuterie board designs, hosting fabulous themed parties, attending as many cultural festivals and events as possible, or simply picking up the latest trending books, Jonathan wanted to experience it all with the people he loved. I personally count myself blessed to have known and loved him. Jonathan was the best of us, and I will carry his love of life with me always.

“ Jonathan was someone you couldn't help but fall in love with. He was joy personified with a mischievous smirk and an ability to know just what you needed. He was a collector of books, charcuterie boards, and craft supplies. But most of all, Jonathan was a collector of people. He selectively chose his people in a way that seemed almost cosmically destined. And once he decided he wanted you; you were his. The odds of 3 people in your immediate circle having the exact same birthday seems like magic. But that was just who Jonathan was- pure magic. He had a way of making you feel seen, loved, and cherished. He was the center of our friend group- not in a loud, demanding way- but in a quiet, selfless way. He not only hand-picked his friends carefully but he then shared us with each other. He may be gone in body but his memory, spirit, and never-ending supply of love lives on in the friendships he so carefully formed - not just with each of us individually but also in the relationships he built for all of us together.

“ As an uncle I watched my sweet nephew grow into a man and show me and others how to act in life. No anger, no hate, no negativity and a bright spot in my life. Johnathan you made your uncle proud. I never knew what being an uncle really meant until now. I'm so honored and grateful to God for putting you in my life. One day we'll meet again, until then enjoy those angel wings!

“ Dear Greg, Julia, Matt, Luke and Jacob

We are heartbroken over the loss of my dear nephew. It's hard to put into words how much he meant to me and to all of us who loved him.

He had such a beautiful smile—one that could light up a room—and that playful spirit that made everyone laugh. He was a true prankster, always finding ways to bring joy and mischief in the best possible way. Those memories will forever stay close to my heart. May we hold onto the laughter, the love, and the unforgettable moments he gave us. I'm keeping all of you in my thoughts and prayers I am here for anything you need.
