“ He was my mom's 1st cousin but he wanted me to call him Uncle Willie, so that's what he was to me... My Uncle Willie. We spent a lot of time together when I was working on what was my grandmother's house but now mine down the same old street we all lived on.

He told me so many funny stories about my mom and him as kids and stories of my grandmother.

It never failed every time I went there to work on the house , there he came riding his bike up the street like he knew I was there and he always stopped. I got to know Uncle Willie in a way I never knew him before, and I loved the man/Uncle I got to know.

He was a good man. A gentle man, with a kind soul.

I sit here thinking of all I wrote and knowing nothing comes close to what kind of person he was.

I will miss you Uncle Willie , I am glad we had or time together and I am glad that I went to see you those times at the VA home.

I glad we continued our talks and our special time together.

I live in a home that is filled with the memory of you being here with me and for me .

Rest in Peace Uncle Willie, you will forever be loved and missed.

“ Willie always greeted me with respect and a smile. He was also related to me through the Klibert family. If I needed help he would always offer.
