“ I am so sorry for your loss. You are all family to me. May God be with you during this difficult time.

“ After Mr. Joe had heard that I had had some medical issues he never failed to come to me and ask how I was doing and end the conversation with "Ron, you are in my prayers" I told him as I tell everyone who tells me that they are praying for me "Thank You, It's the greatest gift you could give me." and I pray for them and their families! One day he ended our conversation and prayer blessing saying "Ron, I really need you to pray for me too" I said always Mr. Joe, always! Joe never told me why or if he was in serious pain. Now I believe he knew he was on a journey to meet Jesus very soon. I respected his dedication to the Church and Twin Oaks. He was a well deserving recipient of the ST. Louis Medallion, a wonderful treasure, but his greatest treasures await him in heaven! Let's think of Mr. Joe often and pray for him however I suggest we pray to him as well for our spiritual needs. This was a Good Man!!!

“ Deepest condolences & assurance of my prayers for the repose of Joe's soul. I so admired how he lived his faith everyday in all that he said & did. He surely was one of our Lord's faithful servants & no doubt, will be rewarded by our loving & gracious God. May you now rest in peace my friend, for all eternity, with the communion of saints.

*I was so very sorry to hear of Mr. Joe',s passing. Sorry I was unable to attend his services
I sincerely admired him. He was such a Faithful servant to God. He arrived early every Wednesday morning at the Rectory to get the satchel containing all of that was needed by the priest to say Wednesday morning Mass at Twin Oaks for it's residents. He always wore that sweet soft smile and spoke in such a soft voice. For the three years I worked at the Rectory never did he not show up earlier than he had too. As a Eucharistic Minister he would always say my name as he presented the host. He was a beautiful and caring person who became a very dear friend. I'll always remember him and be grateful for our friendship. I know he earned his wings and is now enjoying his Eternal Reward. God Bless you dear friend.*
