“ We are praying for The Gendron Family. May God comfort each one of you. We learn of Mrs. Jo passing today as well as Mr. Raymond. Mr. Raymond was our agent for many years. They were a beautiful couple in their young age (smile). I can hear Mrs Jo saying Mary and laughing the same time. Mr. Raymond will make sure we got our oranges. So many good thing we can say about Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Gendron. Love Always! Mary Cotton and Family.

“ I'm so sorry I didn't know about Jo's passing until after the service today. She was such a sweet lady, I've know her and Raymond since the 1970s. Will miss them both. Lynda Galloway

“Raye, my prayers of peace and comfort from our Lord and savior are with you and your family as you give your mom back to God. My heart is right there with you overflowing with emotions-"been there done that". Hopefully it will get easier in time. Take your time to grieve and heal yourself, don't let anyone tell you how long the time should be. You favor your mom's looks to a "T", how wonderful. Mom's will always hold special places in our hearts and thoughts. Love to you from Keiley

Our sympathies are with Jo's family. We know that she is happy in heaven with her beloved husband and other family and friends who have gone before her. We are sending our sympathy for our dear mom, Maggie, who passed away in December 2013. We are praying that they are together now and resting peacefully. Love to you Marie (Maggie's daughter and her). Stay strong during these sad moments.

*Great memories of my Aunt Jo. We shared many conversations over 40 or more years usually talked weekly and if I didn't call for a week she would ask me if I had been on vacation. She and Raymond would go on vacations with Earl and I and we always had a great time. She loved her family - her six children meant everything to her and she always told me how blessed she felt to have them. I have comfort in knowing that Aunt Jo was not afraid of death. She told me that when God was ready for her she would be ready for Him. And she was. I will truly miss our conversations. Love You Aunt Jo.
