“ I have so many memories of Ms. Karen. It began years ago. We worked at Triche's together. My 1st wedding was in her home 35 years ago before she became JOP. I called her every year for her birthday just to let her know.... I will never ever forget her pure love and kindness towards me and my family. I can go on and on about her. Ms. Karen November was very close for our conversation on the telephone. I will truly miss you. I love you!!! Take your rest Heaven has gain another Beautiful Angel!!!

“ the few times I have had the privilege to meet Mrs Karen, she would always be smiling and have something nice to say. I remember taking her over to Mr Henry’s home so she could notarize something for him. He sat and sang us a song. She was very pleasant and patient while he sang to us. I know her family will miss her, especially our sweet neighbor.
