“ Karen and I grew up together since Garyville Grammar School days. We lived on the same street "back" the track. I'm a year older than her, but we were friends and shared lots of fun times together. I used to sew for her, since I was in Home Ec. at LGHS; I made skirts and vests for her. I charged 50 cents for skirts and 25 cents for vests; we had good times, and Garyville bonded us together as friends for life. I will miss her even though I didn't see her often. You all have memories to see you through. Love and bless all of you!!!

“ LJ, Chad, Toby and Jason, so sorry for your loss. Ms. Karen was a part of my childhood I'll always remember. She opened her home to me and treated me like one of her own. I'll always appreciate that. She had a big heart and know she's resting well with Mr. Lanny.
