“ Karen was our go to person at the assisted living place my mother has been living at the past 7 years. She was a fighter and we had no idea that she was fighting this battle again. We will miss you, Karen. Rest on top of the highest mountain.

Sincerely,
Karen Hooter , family member of resident at Atrium

“ Dear family this is a bittersweet moment for us at Little Leaders Learning Center preschool our hearts are heavy because we will not see you again and now we must live on the many memories you gave us as you participated in the life of all your grand babies. You will forever be loved and remembered at Little Leaders, rest in peace and see you in glory! Pastor Steve and Rita Perrilloux and the Little Leaders Staff.
