“ I met Ken 4 years ago when I first hired on at SHELL NORCO. As 2 of the more "senior" guys on the crew, we hit it off immediately. Ken was a serious yet funny guy and was full of stories. He told me of how he came to be in the South after growing up in Ohio and having to find steady work. I listened in amazement as he told me of falling thru an open elevator shaft at a jobsite! Man, what a life he lived! He found out I live in St. Bernard and mentioned that he had a friend that lived in Delacroix. (I thought, "Yeah, right. A Yankee that even knows how to find Delacroix would be something!") Anyway, it turns out I ran into that guy (Richard Campo) about 4 months later and mentioned Ken's name. His face lit up and he could not stop talking about the fun times they had shared on the jobsite and on Richard's boat, trawling for shrimp.

That's the perfect story about Ken---he made a lasting impression on everyone he met.

From sharing a love for raising chickens, fishing, and enjoying his "Cajun Hellfire" whiskey, we got along great.

I last spoke to him just before Christmas when he called me to inquire about getting a few more chickens to replace some that he lost. He sounded great and said he had been keeping busy with the kids and grandkids. A true family oriented man.

Ken, you will be missed not only by your family, but also your friends and "work" family.

Rest in Peace, brother.

“ Deborah called me on Saturday morning to tell me about Kenny's passing. It breaks my heart that y'all are going through this so soon after your mom's passing. Words fail me, but Kenneth please know that you, Ryan, Tiffany, the precious grandchildren and your extended family are in my prayers.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of us all growing up as we went through high school. You and Bobby were inseparable back in those days. I often asked everyone where you were and how you were doing and just finally reconnected with you and what a pleasure that was for me. May you now Rest In Peace my dear ole friend. I will always hold on to all the memories instilled within me.

“ I have so many memories of Kenny. Growing up he was always around my dad Ed Hupps, who coached him & my other cousins in little league. As a young girl I just always remember him & my other cousins always so many kids at my aunt margies. I remember going to his house when he had just remodeled it. Kenneth & Tiffany were small. Ryan was just a baby. He was so proud of all of the work he had done, he took me & John all over the house & yard. In more recent years he loved to message me on Facebook to harass me about the Patriots football team. I just thought of this after they lost Saturday. I will miss this To Jodi, Kenneth, Tiffany & Ryan. I am truly heartbroken for you all & your children. Your dad was a great father grandfather & cousin. I truly wish there were something I could say to make this easier for you. I completely understand the pain & grief you are going through. Please reach out if you ever need to talk. RIP Ken
Love your cousin
