“ Dear Loupe Family,

Wish I could be there to celebrate the beautiful life of PawPaw Kermit. We have lived in Hurley now for over 20 years and have wonderful memories of him and Mawmaw at St Ann events as well as family get togethers. I loved watching them dance!! WOW, they were really good! You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Give mawmaw a big hug for me. Love You All, Mary Guardia

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to all of the Loupe family. Paw Paw will be sadly missed by all. He was a good and decent man and loved by all who have come to know him. RIP Mr. Kerm, you are now back with your family but more importantly you are with someone who loves you more than any of us ever could. You are now with our Lord and Savior....
