“ *The world lost a great man in Mr Leroy Brock. Over 53 years I was a kid and he would babysit my sisters and me and his siblings while our parents went out dancing on Saturday nights. I didn't see him for a long time. But when I opened my shop across the street from rainbow Chevy . He found me to work on his cars . He was a wonderful guy. I saw him last year before the hurricane. It was always great to see him and tell stories. My Condolences to the whole family. RIP Mr Leroy. You definitely left your mark on the world and will never be forgotten. As he always called me. “ Dear Mr Leroy,
I Just want to say to your family that You my friend. Were an absolute treasure to their family. And for a very short time. A treasure that shined like a diamond to me! That glowing smile u had. The kindness that emminated from your soul! I for one am so very thankful to have been able to help serve Jesus to serve you in the last moments of your life! Thank U for allowing me to serve you! I enjoyed my time with u. Sharing snacks with u. Laughing at green acres with u. Putting a happy smile on tour face for the last few moments of your life. I enjoyed showing u pictures of my children's life. And I enjoyed hearing about your fish joke on your wall. And about your Bengal puppy's that u hunted rabbits with. Thanks for sharing your tricks with me on hunting. So that I can share with my boys. I am thankful that at least while I was on my watch we were able to get that C Pap mask on straight enough to where u were comphy. At least for the most part. Thank u for letting me say prayers with u. I'm glad we got to share some good christian music together and enjoy it... It was a pleasure to be able to serve the King of Kings. For one of his wonderful servants. A King In Gods Kingdom on this earth! May U rest in peace with Jesus and dance before Him. In worship. With the other Saints in heaven. And Sing with the Angels Man of God! You will be greatly missed sweet soul of Jesus! Thank you! To the entire Brock Family for the honor of being able to take care of your Dad, and Grand dad! I Love you Jessica! You did an Amazing Job! Of representing the professionalism of your family! Taking care of your Angel! Aka Pops! I Love u!
