

Lotte Emma Baumann Battard

February 22, 1926 - January 4, 2023

We are sad to announce the passing of Lotte Emma Baumann Battard on Wednesday, January 4, 2023 at the age of 96. She was born in Rauschwitz, Germany to the late Paul Baumann and Emma Baumann; sister of Gisela and the late Marto, Paul and Emma.

Lotte was a proud survivor of the Second World War as a civilian and refugee. After marrying the late U.S. Army Sgt. Frank Omer Battard and receiving her U.S. citizenship, she became a dedicated surgical technician. From there she made a career for over 50 years, where she made many lifelong friends. Lotte was determined and had resolve. She was an inspiration to everyone who wanted to learn what she could teach.

Beloved Mother of the late Frank Paul Battard Sr. (Patty) and of David Peter Battard (Liz). Grandmother of Frank Paul Battard, Jr. (Paula), Derek James Battard, Alexander Joseph Battard (Tracy), Jennifer Williams, Lauren Humphries (Dustin) and Austin Battard. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and great-grandchildren.

“ My mother was a kind, strong, determined and giving person. She loved her work in surgery at Hotel Dieu and was extremely well thought of by her peers and Professional staff of Surgeons.

She always thought of giving to the poor and needy regardless of where or who they were. Lotte loved her family and grandchildren and was always supportive of them at all times good or bad.

She survived WWII as a German citizen and lost her Dad and Brother during the war on the Russian front. Her family still resides in Germany and all will miss her immensely .

My family and I wish her all the peace and love she deserves and she will be truly missed by us all.

All my Love,

Her son David
