“ Aunt " Peg " Was a very special lady. In the last (15) years, we usually talked, monthly.
We love her sense of humor. She would say I know I am very sick, but I can't remember what is wrong, so I will not worry.
She was my main source for "Coffey" family history, while I was working on the family tree. She was the last living "Coffey" from that generation.
She will truly be missed.

Until the Covid virus, I was a St Joan of Arc volunteer each Wednesday to help with the Mass. Miss Peg attended at the entrance of her door. On my way in or out I always stopped in her room to visit. What a warm and sweet lady. She was always so pretty and always made sure she had a compliment for me. She said we made her day. She will be missed.
Sincerely, Lynne Acosta
