Margaret was a giving person. As a young adult she would volunteer as a candy striper at the old Charity Hospital in New Orleans. She loved to swing and watching the birds from her front porch, listing to music on the radio (trying to win), and taking care of her Christmas cactus. We know she enjoyed her life from all her stories she told us of the past and always looked forward to what was coming up next. She was a supportive and a devoted person to her family and friends. She may have been what you call a homebody but Loved being the host for family events big or small. She loved to bake, so as a birthday gift she would bake us our very own special cake. She has put a big hole in our lives and will be greatly missed, but know she is at home now with our dad, 2 brothers and the rest of her loved ones she greatly missed.
