“ Blessed in the eyes of The Lord is the death of His saints. Our prayers are with you. Stay strong in The Lord and the Power of His Might. He is able to do exceeding abundantly above anything we think or ask. Jo Lawrence, Pelicans SDT

“ I just saw Marie's obituary. I remember Marie and Elaine from our time together at St. Peter's School. It's been a long time since I graduated from St. Peter's in 1976. But today, I still remember her as being such a sweet child, kind with a gentle smile. The whole Henry family was a blessing to St. Peter's. May the God of All comfort surround you at this time. For we know that the end of this life is just the beginning of a life with Jesus, one without sickness or pain. Praying for your family,

“ I have delivered communion to Marie for 14 years from Ascension of Our Lord Church. She has always had such a sweet disposition. She loved to talk about her children and family. Marie was patient with her disabling health and waited on the Lord to show her His will. She will be missed.
