“ One of the greatest joys of my life was getting to stand with Dale at the altar when she married Bill. She was one of the best friends I ever had. Her home going has left a void in my life and the lives of so many others. May God grant peace and comfort to all of you in the days ahead. Major and I are so sad that we cannot attend the service tomorrow, but he is recovering from heart surgery. Our love, thoughts, and prayers will be very present.

I was quite saddened and shocked to hear of Dale's death at Mass this evening at St Joan of Arc Church. I hate that I missed the opportunity to pay my respects to the family.

I first met Dale through her husband Bill when he was a frequent visitor at the library where I worked. Imagine my surprise when I learned Bill was a West Virginia native, just as I was. We shared many memories and much laughter about growing up in the hills of West Virginia.

When my husband died in 2005 Bill and Dale came to my home with a baked ham and spent time visiting with me and expressing their sympathy and kindness. I never forgot their generosity.

To her remaining family I want to extend my sincere and deep condolences at the loss of this wonderful lady.
