“ I met Mary in the late 70s-early 80s at St. John Library in LaPlace, and from the beginning she was gracious, friendly, helpful, and inclusive of this newcomer to her birthplace. I loved her, and was lucky to get to know her a little while we lived in LaPlace. I met Helena when she was still a young, unmarried woman, and enjoyed talking history and genealogy with Mary. I love her so much. My heart is with Helena and her family, and I'm so grateful for having known Mary, a wonderful ambassador for the SE LA. Cajun-Germans in the River Parishes.
