“ Mary you are so loved and missed babygirl. My heart is so broken. We were by your side the day u came into this world. They put u in that baby bed and u just popped up that beautiful little head looking around. U are our first grand baby and we looked at u and our hearts melt. We will miss you so much but I'm so glad we talked the prior evening before and your last text message was how much you loved us I will always remember you babygirl til we meet again.

“Mary, we have so many nicknames and memories most with laughter and some with tears. My favorite memory of us is voodoo fest 2019. It was a rainy day but we had so much fun dancing and listening to great music. I had never seen you so free. I’m glad we shared those three days of just pure happiness and joy. I will forever miss you, your heart was so big and filled with kindness. You were my sunflower. I know you’re in heaven looking down on everyone. I’m glad I got to see you one last time. Myles and I love you soo much!”

“When you found out you was pregnant you was scared to tell me, I was with you from the first visit to the last, I was there when you needed to talk about anything. How I miss our talks! As I said before and I’ll say it again, you gave me the most precious gift in life, my grand daughter! We were close and I took into my home , you were like a daughter to me! Until we meet again! Fly high Mary!”
