“ Mrs. Maureen filled our lives with neighborly love & laughter. I could remember her telling me "hey..I fed your dog some cookies through the fence" & she had a laugh that would make you smile. She will be missed. Mr Don, may God bless you & comfort you and your family during this time.

Maureen was my dear sister, my friend, my confidant and my buddy growing up together. I will hold her in my heart forever until I can hold her in my arms once more when we meet again in Heaven. I love and miss you Howard Thiele

Maureen was a wonderful person. We lived across the street from her daughter Doreen and son in law Chuck Adams. She always had something funny to share. She and the family supported Steven when he ran for council and held the seat for his 4 year term. Our condolences to Don and the family. Rest In Peace Ms. Maureen, from the Thornton Family.
