“ Was truly saddened to hear of Mikes passing. I have memories of taking the bus with phil to the airport to visit mike at the weather station. Getting us a strawberry daiquiri at the parades when we were still just a bit underage. Miss just hanging out in my younger years or all of us, including skippy, taking a ride. Seems like Mike and Mia's wedding wasnt that long ago. Time flies. As I write this and can smile thinking about good memories shared with mike, the opposite is true when I think about his passing. Mike forever had a smile on his face. A truly genuine smile. The world was a much better place with him in it. Mike was of the good guys in a world where there are too many bad ones. My deepest sympathies to Mia, the LaRosa family and all of those who were lucky enough to have known Mike. Rest in peace my brother.
