“ To all of the Pastrano family, especially Ms. Faye. I know what it's like to lose a child, no matter their age. I remember you calling him “Ncki”. I will never forget the day Nick and Angela walked down Hennessey Street. They were a very important part of our “ Mid-city” gang. The neighborhood was never the same after the Pastrano family moved in! Of course the girls also will never forget Nick. So many fond memories of those days. I hope the rest of your life was good after we parted. Sounds like it was. Rest in peace Nick.

“ Nick was like a brother to me. We spoke often about the beautiful times at Easton football and the fun times that we had after our Easton days. I was blessed to speak to Nick just last week. Rest in peace my brother. You will always live in my heart. I know that we will see each other in heaven. May God bless you my brother and pray for peace in your families hearts.
