“ I am very grateful to have known Uncle Sonny in this lifetime. He is responsible for more than a few of my fondest childhood memories from vacations, camping trips, belting out "just a bowl of butter beans" with his legendary guitar by the camp fire. He was always great fun, always putting a smile on someone's face. Always making someone double over in laughter. Uncle Sonny was a very kind and light-filled soul. We all have so many great memories to draw from that will continue to put a smile on our faces or make us laugh for a great many years to come. This world is a better place for Uncle Sonny having been in it. As he takes his place in the Great Campground In The Sky, let us look on his life with gratitude and inspiration. He will be missed but never forgotten. Rest in Peace Profound Uncle Sonny!

Aunt Carole, Nicky, Michelle, Joe, Marcel & Danny, my sincerest condolences and love to all of you in this difficult time. Yall are the most blessed people in the world to have Uncle Sonny as a husband and father. May your fondest memories be a comfort to you.

“ The best memory I have of Mr. Nick is the first day that I met him at Sunland. I had walked into his office, address him as Mr. Dupepe and the look on his face scared me for I knew right there and then I mispronounced his last name. He wouldn't let me leave his office until I said Dupepe correctly. This took about an hour but it felt like three. And ever time I would pass his office I would always poke my head in to say correctly mind Nick Dupepe. God bless you and may you keep the Angels at bay with pronouncing correctly Dupepe.

*Rest in peace

Heartbroken to read this news. Mr. Sony was a great husband, Dad, and neighbor. My favorite memory must be at Halloween with his microphone and the pumpkin head ghost with army boots! Rest high on that mountain Sir, Salute.
