“ *Dear Sweet Noemie! <3
Although, she was a client, I viewed her as a true friend. Every time she would call to place an order, I loved getting an update on her beloved family. From Melanie, to Julie in school, to her having me make special personalized gifts for them! She was a true southern, gentile lady! She never failed to send me a thank you card, right up to when I sent her flowers in the hospital. Shorty thereafter, I received a thank you card from her!! Amazing and I' so glad I kept all of them.
She will be greatly missed and forever remebered!
Love to all of her personal family and her family at Laura Plantation.
God Bless,

Mr. C.J. I am so sorry for your loss. I was shocked when I heard this news. I just read services were at noon so I was to late to attend. Mrs. Noemie was such a loving and sweet person I will miss her. When you were Principal at St. Peter, she would come visit but always came to see me before you. I asked her why and she said I see him everyday I came into see you first, so I would laugh. I will think of her the night of the Spring Pageantry because she would only go if she could sit by me. If you need anything just let me know. RIP Mrs. Noemie. My prayers are with you.
