“ It was always a pleasure and joy to visit with Joe as I always learned something new about life from his unique perspective. What I will always remember about him is how much he changed Lily's life. Her joy in meeting and marrying him was a true story of romance.

“ O.J. and I were in Boy Scout Troop 76 that met at the Presbyterian church in Belfair subdivision in Baton Rouge around 1960. He was a year younger than me and several other scout classmates of mine, but well liked by all of us. O.J. was also a classmate of my wife at (maybe) Sacred Heart School and she noticed his obituary. He was a nice, fun kid and though it's been sixty years since we saw each other, I'm sorry he's gone. Condolences to his family. -Ron Sammonds
